

Legacy Gift
weekend getaway

Give a personalized gift to a couple you care about.

The Weekend Getaway Legacy Gift is the perfect gift for couples at any stage of life.

It starts with a weekend marriage conference that could transform their relationship and change the trajectory of their life and family. After the weekend is over, the couple will continue to receive resources from FamilyLife that will reinforce, affirm and encourage their growth as a couple.

Their lives will never be the same. And this could be the best investment you'll ever make.

FamilyLife is a ministry of

FAMILYLIFE weekend getaway

For more than 30 years, FamilyLife has helped couples breathe new life into their relationships. More than one million couples have experienced a weekend getaway like this one and put the insightful, time-tested principles to use.

It's not couples therapy, and there's no group sharing. Instead couples will be guided through instruction and conversation to learn how to:

- Maximize their differences
- Fight fair
- Speak each other's language
- Rekindle intimacy and romance
- Deepen commitment
- Pursue God's big plan for their marriage

They will have time to learn and process together in a warm, fun-filled environment. It's a weekend getaway they'll never forget.

 We were headed for divorce and this conference truly healed our marriage.

 We had become stagnant, stuck in routine and habit - now we have the passion to make changes and to break the habits to build a better marriage and life.
